

Tarot Daily (Version: Black)

The Tarot Daily was illustrated by Nuno Alexandre Maia Vieira for Talita Cardoso Lima, creator of Tarot Daily Blog, in 2022. The cards were based on the illustrations by artist Pamela Colman Smith, made in 1909, in coordination with occultist Arthur Edward Waite. The Rider-Waite-Smith tarot became over time the most popular of all. This deck has the intention of updating the original deck, maintaining its essence and all its symbolism. Only the major arcana are all numbered.
